DETAILED ACTION

The preliminary amendment, which included amendment to claims 3-7 and 13-15, filed on 10/20/2004, are made of record. Claims 1-17 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-8, drawn to a process of preparing the compound of formula I.

Group II, claims 9 and 10, drawn to a process of preparing the compound of formula VIII.

Group III, claims 11-14, drawn to a process of preparing the compound of formula II.

Group IV, claims 15 and 16, drawn to an intermediate compound of formula IIa.

Group V, claim 17, drawn to yet another process of preparing the compound of formula I.

The inventions listed as Groups I, II, III, IV and V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Group I , II , III and V relate to four distinct process for making compound of formula I, VIII, II and I respectively. The process limitations of each of these process are distinct and independent. They use different starting materials. While process of Group I requires compound of formula II, III, IV, V and VI , process of Groups II and III and V do not require such compounds. They use different starting materials. Process of Group II uses compound of formula III, VII and while process of Group III uses compound of formula X respectively as starting material for the process and the nature of the reactions are distinct from each other. The ammonolysing that is required for the process of Group I is not required for the process of V. Thus, they do not share a single general inventive concept. Similarly, the processes of Group I, II III and V are distinct and independent from the intermediate of Group IV and they do share the single inventive concept. The intermediates of Group IV can be made and used independent of the process of groups I, II III or V. Thus, each Group is distinct and independent and do not share a single inventive concept.

Art Unit: 1624

In view of distinct nature of each invention, the restriction requirement is set forth in writing.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

(a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;

(b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;

(c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);

(d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;

(e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Art Unit: 1624

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
